November Update!

A month of insightful learning, heartfelt celebrations, and inspiring stories!

Namaste,

November has been a month of reflection and growth at Scale Up. From insightful sessions to moments of togetherness, we've continued to foster a culture of learning and connection. As the year draws to a close, let's carry forward the inspiration and discipline that fuel our journey.

Warm Regards,
Saamil Surendra Parikh, Founder of Scale Up

PACT Session with Mr. Kamlesh Jain

We had the privilege of attending an enlightening session, PACT, with Mr. Kamlesh Jain. Focused on the power of ATTENTION, it was one of the best sessions we've experienced, leaving us inspired and more mindful in our work and lives.

Birthday Celebrations

November was sweeter as we celebrated Pooja and Ankita's birthdays with a simple yet meaningful cake-cutting ritual. It's more than just cake—it's about coming together as a team to celebrate each other.

VISIT TO NAND NIWAS

This month, we visited Nand Niwas, a senior citizens' residence, and met extraordinary individuals whose stories of resilience left us deeply inspired. Their determination and wisdom reminded us that growth and learning truly have no age limit.

A Quote to Ponder over

"The universe is an endless echo chamber.
If you shout, 'What can you give me?'
A voice will come back, 'What can you give me?'
If you shout, 'How can I serve you?'
A voice will come, 'How can I serve you?'"

That's all for November!
